MANAGEMENT AND LEADERSHIP SKILLS

Self-employer

Beyond my main activity at university, I have gained high skills in management and leadership through a private own job with public bodies and private companies in the field of hydrology, meteorology and climatology.

ORGANISATIONAL SKILLS

Problem-solving and multi-tasking

I have acquired organisational skills thanks to the university experience (teaching, lab activities, international projects), to the self-employer work and as member of many associations in meteorology and hydrology.
